THE BRIDE SAYS...

THEIR STORY Following a chance meeting on a night out, it was love at first sight for Vanessa and Manuel. "We spent the entire night talking until 8am the next morning, without even a kiss – Manuel later told me that on the first night we met he wanted to marry me" Vanessa explained. The couple celebrated their wedding with a lavish reception for 70 of their closest family and friends. A highlight of the night was the inclusion of Mexican music and details throughout the evening. "It was an excellent way to bring all our guests together, with the dance floor full the whole night" Vanessa explained.

"We wanted an intimate celebration with our closest friends and family, influenced by our story and Manuel's Mexican culture. We chose an old Spanish style church built in the early 1900s to incorporate Manuel's father's Spanish heritage which perfectly suited the atmosphere we were trying to create. Our wedding planner, Marissa from A Lavish Affair, was wonderful in bringing together all the details."
